New Board Officers and Members Chosen at NDBA

Bismarck, ND – The North Dakota Bankers Association (NDBA) announces new officers and board members for its board and that of NDBA Services, Inc., a subsidiary of NDBA. The appointments were announced at the 2007 Annual Convention held recently in Sioux Falls, SD. The convention is held jointly with the South Dakota Bankers Association.

Eric Hardmeyer, president of Bank of North Dakota, Bismarck, succeeds Tim Siegle, president of United Valley Bank in Cavalier, as chairman of the NDBA Board of Directors. A Mott native, Hardmeyer began his career at BND 18 years ago as a loan officer. Later, he was promoted to commercial loan manager and then senior vice president of lending. He became president in 2001. Hardmeyer serves on a variety of state and community boards. He resides in Bismarck with his wife, Laura, and four children.

Mark DuBord, market president for Fargo-Moorhead-Wahpeton of American Federal Bank, became chairman-elect of the NDBA Board. A graduate of the Graduate School of Banking in Boulder, Colorado, DuBord has been in banking since 1981. He is a member of the Fargo-Moorhead AM Rotary and serves on the Foundation Board with Catholic Schools. DuBord joined American Federal in 1998 and resides in Fargo with his wife, Colleen, and two children.

Tim Hennessy, regional president for U.S. Bank in Western North Dakota, Bismarck, was elected treasurer of the NDBA Board. A Berthold native, Hennessy began his banking career in 1977 and joined U.S. Bank in 1994. Hennessy was named president of U.S. Bank in 1997 and regional president in 2001. He serves on boards for numerous organizations in Bismarck and currently serves on the ND Centers of Excellence Commission, chairs the Missouri Valley YMCA Board of Trustees and chairs the University of Mary Board of Regents. Tim has three grown children and has lived in Bismarck since 1975 with his wife, Eve.
