at the University of Wisconsin – Madison

Today's economic market has placed unprecedented challenges on CFOs and financial managers. That is why it has never been more important to attend the Financial Managers School. This one-week school was designed by experienced CFOs for financial institution finance managers, to provide you with the tools you need to build a solid foundation in asset/liability management.

What You'll Learn

Using an in-depth, computer-based case study, you will gain practical experience in developing and operating an effective financial management strategy.

Who Should Attend

CFOs, controllers and those who hold senior management positions actively involved in day-to-day financial management activities. Financial managers who have experience with asset/liability management, investments, budgeting and reporting activities will benefit from this in-depth curriculum.

Why you Should Attend

This comprehensive, one-week school offers you many benefits you can use throughout your career, including:

- Acquire the tools to successfully manage the A/L function of a financial institution
- Find proven solutions to today's complex challenges from an experienced faculty
- Hone your skills with a comprehensive curriculum that includes an in-depth study of key financial management areas
- Create career-long relationships with like-minded colleagues

CPE Credit

FMS is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy as a sponsor of CPE on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. Attendees can earn up to 39 hours of CPE credit. For the complete NASBA statement, please visit www.fmsinc.org/nasba.

Additional Information

A comprehensive program overview, curriculum description, and online registration form are available on the GSB web site at www.gsb.org or the FMS web site at www.fmsinc.org/school.

"I can't say enough good things about the program. The facilities are top notch, there are excellent instructors and support staff and most importantly relevant curriculum. We are already using several of the takeaways from the course ... all as a direct result of the materials presented at the Financial Managers School."
