

UCC Article 9 Seminar

September 17, 2019 – Delta Hotels by Marriott, Fargo ND
September 18, 2019 – Ramkota Hotel, Bismarck ND

About the Program

If all borrowers paid back their loans, there would be no need for collateral. Collateral can be real estate and/or personal property of the borrower or grantor. This seminar will teach participants how to properly secure loans with personal property collateral. With experience teaching law students UCC Article 9 Secured Transactions and practicing law focused in loan documentation and enforcement of Article 9 Secured Transactions, NDBA Counsel Tracy Kennedy will guide participants through the categories of collateral and the proper way to attach a bank's interest in that collateral. Participants will also learn the best way to perfect a bank's security interest and understand priority and pitfalls of secured lending. Additionally, consumer, business and agricultural secured lending in North Dakota and the effects of bankruptcy on a secured credit will be discussed in this seminar.

Program Highlights

- What is your collateral, how do you describe it, when does the bank's interest attach to the collateral and how do you perfect the bank's interest in the collateral?
- Who's your Debtor and what's in a name?
- What do you need to know about ag collateral and lending?
- What happens if your Borrower defaults?
- What happens to your collateral when the Debtor files for Bankruptcy?
