

Bankers Day at the Capitol

Please join us for “Bankers Day at the Capitol” hosted by the North Dakota Bankers Association. Bankers from throughout the state will gather in Bismarck on January 23 to spend a day at the State Capitol learning more about the North Dakota legislative process and discussing important banking and economic issues with legislators.

You'll hear informative presentations from lawmakers and other officials, along with a briefing on important banking issues. Then you may take in a committee hearing, see the 66th Legislative Assembly in action and have an opportunity to visit with Representatives and Senators.

Who Should Attend

All bankers are invited to participate in this event. A strong trade association and a strong government depend on citizen involvement at all levels. Having many bankers at the Capitol will send the message that NDBA is a strong association with the support of a great membership. This is a great opportunity to expose future leaders to the legislative process!
