Connecting HR Strategy to Business Performance

Today's HR professionals must understand both critical HR issues and the business of banking. From recruitment to performance management, HR decisions directly influence productivity and profitability.

GSB's Human Resource Management School is a one-week program that blends essential HR practices with banking insights. Interactive application sessions provide practical tools to help you select, retain, and develop top talent right away.

What You'll Gain:

- Practical tools to strengthen recruitment, retention, and career development
- Enhanced strategies for performance management, compensation and benefits
- Approaches to boost employee productivity and profitability
- A network of peers connecting leaders across all levels of banking

$700 Scholarship Available!

North Dakota Bankers Association will award one scholarship to support member participation in this program. Submit completed application to NDBA before February 19, 2027.

Scholarships are for incoming HR students only. A separate application for the school must be completed via the GSB website by the March 12 deadline in order to attend the 2027 school.
